MEMORANDUM ORDER

AND NOW, this 19th day of November, 2012, upon due consideration of defendants' motion in limine to exclude evidence of lost opportunity for a promotion and the parties' submissions in conjunction therewith, IT IS ORDERED that [87] the motion be, and the same hereby is, denied without prejudice to renew on the record at trial. Although it appears that the evidence may well be insufficient to support a recovery for such alleged economic loss, Sallie did testify that he was in line for the promotion, he interviewed for the position and the company had to move forward and fill the position while he was in jail. The court will permit plaintiffs to make a full proffer on the record so that Sallie can provide any additional details underlying these generalized statements. Defendants can then renew the motion and make further argument based on the fully developed record. At trial, plaintiffs' counsel shall give defense counsel advance notice of plaintiffs' intent to proffer the evidence falling within the scope of the instant motion so that defendants may challenge its introduction outside the presence of the jury. The court will resolve any renewed motion in the context and setting of the record as then developed. Failure to comply with this order may result in sanctions.
